Special rental equipment pricing available for all Adventures Down Under trips. Please inquire and arrange for any equipment needed at the time of sign up. 50% off rentals excluding tanks.

Proof of appropriate certification required prior to registration. Local PNW dives additionally require proof of local diving within the last 6 months. Advanced Openwater certification or equivalent is highly recommended for the basic to intermediate dives although not required. To register for single day trips payment in full must be received. Multiday trips require a 50% deposit to hold a space. No refunds less than 60 days from date of departure although we will attempt to resell your space once the minimum number of divers have been booked for that trip. Trips do not include transportation to departure city. DAN insurance or equivalent and dive partner required for technical trips. All prices in US funds. Schedule and prices are subject to change without notice. For a regularly updated dive schedule check out our website at <http://www.adventuresdownunder.com>.
